

WORLD PREMIERE
from
Tony Nominated Sisters
LIZ CALLAWAY and
ANN HAMPTON CALLAWAY

Singing and celebrating the soundtrack of their childhood
the unforgettable songs of the '60s and '70s

"Their voices blend and soar majestically like eagles, reducing a large number of ringsiders to tears and cheers!" THE NEW YORK OBSERVER

"Astonishing." LOS ANGELES WEEKLY

"Their harmonizing surpasses the sisterly into the sublime." NEW YORK MAGAZINE

BOOM!

When Liz Callaway and Ann Hampton Callaway combine musical forces in their highly awaited new show "Boom!", memories come alive through the music of such greats as Joni Mitchell, Carole King, Carly Simon, The Beatles, Paul Simon, Jimmy Webb and Stevie Wonder, to name a few. The two Tony Award nominated stars share heartwarming and humorous stories of their years growing up in Chicago and New York. In true Callaway fashion, today's most celebrated sister act put their unmistakable stamp on solos and duets of songs such as "Both Sides Now," "Up, Up and Away," "That's The Way I've Always Heard It Should Be," "Bridge Over Troubled Water," "Will You Love Me Tomorrow?" and "Downtown," among other swinging and mod classics.

Jack Randall | TED KURLAND ASSOCIATES | agents@tedkurland.com | 617.254.0007