

Conjuring a musical montage of Manhattan nights, pianist extraordinaire BILL CHARLAP joins forces with swinging vocalist FREDDY COLE to present an evening of popular song.

Charlap has a mantle-full of acclaim for his personal way with standards. With full instrumental prowess, his playing zeroes in on the heart and soul of the lyric.

Cole has emerged from the awesome shadow cast by his elder brother Nat, though Freddy's phrasing is all his own. His vocals—warm, suave and elegant—are among the most respected in jazz.

Bill Charlap Freddy Cole

"[Freddy Cole has a] gorgeous autumnal baritone, expressive phrasing and pitch-perfect feel for jazz standards, pop tunes and love ballads."

People Magazine

"Freddy has an impeccable sense of swing... he is, overall, the most maturely expressive male jazz singer of his generation, if not the best alive."

The New York Times

"Bill Charlap is one of America's foremost interpreters of standards via the ivories...his approach to the great American songbook is never less than dazzling."

BBC
