

“...put across with impeccable timing, perfect microphone technique and mature assurance, a touch of steel inside the velvet glove.”

Evening Standard

“Jack Jones brought a warm glow to a wet George Square and a perfect end to the Royal Bank Glasgow Jazz Festival 2004. His smooth honeyed voice melted away the evening chill and created an incredibly intimate atmosphere in the square.”

Evening Times

“Have the years lessened the impact of that voice? Not at all. Not even his 16-piece big-band orchestra could compete.”

Palm Beach Post

“...pure musical polish and know-how... He has astounding control of his instrument - and what a voice it is, rooted in jazz, yet moving beyond it in the tradition of show-business veterans like Sammy Davis Jr. and, yes, even Sinatra.”

New York Observer

Jack Jones

With a disarming smile, an effortlessly engaging wit and a vocal style that stand alone, Jack Jones is one of the greatest singers ranking with legendary Mel Tormé, Tony Bennett, Frank Sinatra and Vic Damone. A true Singers' Singer. A double Grammy winner, Jack performs around the globe to sold-out audiences in venues ranging from Jazz clubs to the London Palladium. Whether he performs with his trio or full Symphony orchestra, his musical perfection and vocal passion unfailingly illustrate why he stands with the luminaries. From the thematic threads of his shows to his ability to make the largest halls intimate, Jack Jones is the very definition of a complete and total entertainer.

The New York Times raves, “he is arguably the most technically accomplished male pop singer...”.

There is only one Jack Jones.