

“Ramsey has evolved into a much broader and imaginative player and his group seems to complement his new found avenues of invention.”

OSCAR PETERSON

“Ramsey has gone back to his roots! ...he has tapped into a new vein of inspiration – [this] is some of his best playing in years!”

QUINCY JONES

SYMPHONY PROGRAM: Forty years after the debut of that breakthrough hit and Ramsey is still doing it up in style with a new version, a new album and a celebratory anniversary tour. For Symphony, Ramsey has created a special program that harkens back further to his teen years and Sunday performances at his hometown Church. Ramsey digs deep into his spiritual roots to bring some gospel energy and emotional songs to the fore.

Since the release of THE IN CROWD, Ramsey has been awarded three Grammys, seven Gold albums and hosted several radio programs including the award-winning radio show, also titled Legends Of Jazz, broadcasted over 70 stations in the US. His most recent duo album with Nancy Wilson, SIMPLE PLEASURES, was awarded a 2004 NAACP Image Award.
