

The Oscar-winning song, "The Morning After," from THE POSEIDON ADVENTURE, catapulted the wonderful voice of Maureen McGovern upon the world stage.

Many gold records later, Maureen has earned the reputation for being one of America's most popular artists with a career that spans recordings, concerts, the Broadway stage, film, television and radio.

She has won audiences the world over with a voice that defies categorization; from a jazz, warm pop register, she glides easily into a crystalline coloratura.

"...a coloratura jazz singer at ease in any medium."
THE NEW YORK TIMES

"Quite simply, she is the most glorious singer to come down the pike in several months of Sundays."
MEL TORME

2003-2004 marks the 30th anniversary of the Oscar winning song that started it all. In celebration, Maureen's latest CD, WORKS OF HEART, includes a new, inspirational version of "The Morning After." Also, her beloved Bergman CD, THE MUSIC NEVER ENDS featuring three new bonus tracks, was re-released on Fynsworth Alley, Spring, 2003.

"To describe Maureen McGovern as versatile would be an understatement. Armed with a multi-octave range, she fits effortlessly from pop to scat, from easy-listening to music theater."

LONDON TIMES

"McGovern is out once again to wow audiences with her instrument, a thrilling, powerhouse voice."

NEWSDAY

"Exquisite."

ASSOCIATED PRESS

"If there's a singer on the planet who can perform material from the great American pop music songbook any better than she can, it's hard to imagine who it might be."

LOS ANGELES TIMES

Maureen McGovern
"the stradiarius voice"