

Marian McPartland

"True genius has no ego. Such is the case with Marion McPartland."

JAZZTIMES

"The first lady of piano jazz."

NEWSDAY

"In every piece, her soloing was enriched by a sophisticated sense of chordal harmony, bringing unexpected musical density to even the most familiar melodies."

THE NEW YORK TIMES

"She's an unending source of creative ideas and infinite adaptability to changing musical circumstances."

JAZZ REVIEW

MARIAN McPARTLAND is widely acknowledged as one of the world's most skilled practitioners of the jazz piano. She has been a force on the jazz scene since the 1950s and has recorded more than sixty albums and CDs. In addition to her touring schedule, she has hosted MARIAN McPARTLAND's PIANO JAZZ since its inception in 1978. The award-winning series is the longest-running cultural program on National Public Radio.

Marian McPartland's contributions to the world of jazz have been boundless. From her earliest Music Hall performances to her recent sold-out concerts, McPartland's refined piano style and subtle humor have graced the world's stages for the past 65 years. She continues to be a trailblazer in an ever-changing industry.