THE PRESERVATION JAZZ BAND HALL

LIVE! IN CONCERT

"THE EFFECT
UPON THE AUDIENCE IS DEVASTATING"

Dedicated to preserving and perpetuating Traditional New Orleans Jazz, the world-renowned PRESERVATION HALL JAZZ BAND derives its name from the venerable music venue founded in 1961 by Allan and Sandra Jaffe. The internationally recognized torchbearers for their enduring genre, the members of the Preservation Hall Jazz Band continue to perform high-energy shows that bring audiences to their feet, clapping and dancing and parading through the aisles, wherever they go and whenever they play.

In addition to their rich catalog embodying the musical legacy and ever-evolving heritage of New Orleans, the Preservation Hall Jazz Band's annual holiday production, A CREOLE CHRISTMAS, is now available for touring. Including such holiday classics as "Silent Night," "I'll Be Home for Christmas," and "Swingin' in a Winter Wonderland," this production has been bringing a New Orleans holiday tradition to audiences nationwide for years. For 2010 and beyond, PHJB is serving up a rich etouffée of musical delights: a tour w/ the DEL McCOURY BAND, a collaboration with the dance troupe, THE TREY MCINTYRE PROJECT, and, back by popular demand, a return of the celebrated Down By The Riverside tour with THE BLIND BOYS OF ALABAMA. By the way, book early and often as 2011 is our 50th anniversary year and sure to be a banner year for us all.
